

Paul B. Muah

Paul B. Muah is a Principal Technologist with a Fortune 50 technology firm in the US. A native of Liberia, he is optimistic about his homeland. He once served the Government of Liberia as a leader of the state-owned telecommunications entity – Liberia Telecommunications Corporation. Prior to his time in Liberia, Paul worked in tech leadership at several technology firms in the US.

Paul is passionate for service. He served as chairperson of the Board of Directors of the Liberian Association of Metro Atlanta (LAMA), a Trustee at the Monrovia College & Industrial Training School in Liberia, and a member of the Board of Directors of Leveraging Education to Achieve Dreams (L.E.A.D), a not-for-profit educational organization in Georgia.

His love for Gospel Music led him to organize and direct the Liberia Community Mass Choir of Georgia for many years before it was dissolved. Paul is a Christian and served as Youth Minister.

A graduate of Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island, he is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Paul is married to Alma, and they are blessed with 2 children.